

Did you not get the healthcare you needed?

We can give free advice and information about your rights in the health and care services. We can help you figure out if your healthcare is good enough.

Anybody can contact the Health & Social Services Ombudsman to tell their story. You do not need a referral. Our services are confidential, and you can be anonymous.

Not sure if we can help you?
Get in touch anyway and we can figure it out together.

Call us at: 40 50 16 00

Contact information for our local offices: pasientogbrukerombudet.no

The work of the Health and Social Services Ombudsman covers public health and care services, including dental health.